

FRANK FARM HISTORY

Gary Frank is the third generation on this farm. The barn was built in 1908 and is presently being used to store hay. The milking parlor, which is a walk-through 6 stall, is also being used on the main level of the barn.

This quilt block was made and installed by the owners (not the Barn Quilts of Oconto County project).