

HISCHKE FARM

Eugene Hischke and his family have lived in this location since 1956. They built the barn in 1962 where it was used to house their steers and for hay storage.

This block was painted by the Shawano Barn Quilts project before our Barn Quilts of Oconto County was launched in 2013.